

PRIMARY SCHOOL ORIENTATION DAY

Friday, 28 December 2012

New students of Asia Pacific Smart School attended a half-day orientation on Friday, 28 December 2012. The orientation was held to orientate and welcome new students.

The master of ceremony for the day then introduced the primary school teachers and management team to the attendees.

This was followed by a school tour led by the homeroom teachers (HRTs) and assistant homeroom teachers (Asst.HRTs). The students were shown and brought to their respective classes for some ice breaking activities.

Meanwhile, parents remained in the hall to watch a couple of presentations. A few teachers presented the schools activities for the year 2012. Orientation Day ended at 11.00 a.m. It was a positive beginning for the new students for a great year ahead in Asia Pacific Smart School.

UPSR DIALOGUE 2013

The school congratulates all the winners. The event went on successfully and the school hopes that we will have a more successful event in the years to come.

TEA WITH PARENTS

Saturday, 22 February 2013

An informal tea session with the new parents was held for parents and teachers to mingle with one another as they engaged themselves in chat sessions. It was attended by parents of newly registered students for 2013.

Doubts and queries on various issues ranging from syllabus to students' behaviour and expectation were clarified as parents enthusiastically discussed them over tea and cakes.

A suggestion box was provided for feedback and suggestions. By 4.45pm, the last parent had left the hall. It was an eventful and fruitful affair for Asia Pacific Smart School.

ROAD RUN

Saturday, 2 February 2013

The Annual Road Run scheduled on 2nd February 2013 was held with the participation of students from Asia Pacific Schools. Students, teachers and parents were raring to start off this event. The event kicked off with students from Primary 6, followed by students from the other levels. Sporting fathers and mothers also participated in the parent's category. As usual, supportive parents came out in full force not only to support their children but their contemporaries as well. The students, parents and teachers had a lot of fun. It was yet another thrilling, exhausting and meaningful Road Run in 2013.
